Hidden Gems

**Even some locals don't know about these.*

**Listed in the same order they appear on the blog post. Visit MineralWells.org/girls-weekend*

1. Crazy Bath House

Enjoy a mineral bath and massage in this adorable early 1900's house reminiscent of the bath houses that drew hundreds in the 1920's. And if you're traveling with a small girl posse, you can even stay the night in the guest rooms.

2. Clark Gardens Botanical Park

If what you're looking for is a breath of fresh air and an unhurried pace, Clark Gardens may be just the place. With 35-acres of beautiful gardens, soothing water features, and serene walkways, it's the perfect place to escape the everyday and reconnect with the girls.

3. Grace Yoga

Stretch away your stresses and find your inner peace with a yoga class. Join them for a class in their studio in downtown Mineral Wells or at session at Clark Gardens Botanical Park.

4. The Flower Shop @ 76067

Take a class in flower arranging or wreath-making.

5. The Kraft Shack

Paint anything from a farm truck sign to a ceramic Christmas tree at one of their paint parties.

6. Coffee & Cocktails @ 76067

How about a cooking class? Sip on a little wine while you learn to cooking a tasty meal. Afterwards, you can head out to the patio and listen to some live music.

7. The Market @ 76067

Every Saturday, one of the more the 100 vendors does a demo or teaches a class. So you could be spinning pottery, making a greeting card, or working with leather.

8. Famous Mineral Water Company Home of Crazy Water

Take a step back into Mineral Wells' past at the original Famous Pavilion. See what it was like to sit at the pavilions and sip on the mineral waters that made us so popular back in the early 1900's.

9. Brazos Market & Bistro

This is the place to get quirky, sassy, and sarcastic souvenirs and treasures. While you're there, you can grab a bite to eat.

10. Merrimac & North

Love finding antique treasures and restyled furniture? Merrimac & North has some beautiful pieces. And you can satisfy your sweet tooth with fresh baked cookies and homemade fudge while you're there.

11. The Kraze | 12. Cactus Creek Boutique | 13. Anchored By Faith

Looking for a new outfit? You'll find it at one of these shops.

14. The Weekend Store | 15. Witschorke's Antiques | 16. Tattered Teddy Antiques

These are your go-to stops for antiques.

17. The Hole in the Wall Grill & Bier Garten

18. Downtown Cantina

19. Taqueria La Estrella

20. Woody's

21. The Lofts & Hospitality

The Lofts & Hospitality is the perfect spot if there are no more than 4 of you. It's a complete urban-living style apartment with 2 bedrooms, a dream kitchen, a game room with a pool table and poker table, and a balcony that not only boasts an incredible view of the Baker Hotel, but also looks over The Hole in the Wall Grill & Bier Garten.

22. Rest Yourself River Ranch

For a true retreat experience, you have to check this place out. Formerly the old Seybold Ranch, this completely restored retreat is stunning. They can sleep 5-90 and when you make a reservation, you get the whole ranch to yourself. One guest-party at a time.

That means you get all the river access, courtyard, river-view covered porch, game room, volleyball-everything-all to yourselves. You'll feel like you're way out in the county but it's just seven miles from Downtown Mineral Wells.

23. Magpie Inn

Coming soon. Magpie Inn is a traditional B&B within walking distance of all the shopping, dining, and murals in the downtown area. They aren't quite open yet, but should be by the end of Summer.
